MARIA JOSE PIZARRO,

No: 20-CV-5783 (AKH)

Plaintiff,

- against-

EUROS EL TINA RESTAURANT LOUNGE AND BILLIARDS CORP., SANTIAGO QUEZADA, AND SANTIAGO QUEZADA, JR.,

REQUEST FOR MISSING
WITNESS JURY CHARGE
BRIEF

Defendants.

-----X
PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Plaintiff Maria Jose Pizarro, by her attorney, Brustein Law PLLC, respectfully submits this memorandum of law in support of her motion for a missing witness or adverse inference.

POINT I

THE JURY SHOULD BE GIVEN AN ADVERSE INFERENCE INSTRUCTION REGARDING THE FAILURE OF DEFENDANTS
QUEZADA SR. AND QUEZADA JR. TO TESTIFY

The Second Circuit has long recognized that adverse inferences and/or missing witness instructions can be given for civil trials where the Defendant has failed to testify on his own behalf. In 1961, the Second Circuit in N. Sims Organ & Co. v. Securities and Exchange Commission 293 F.2d 78, 80 - 81 (2d. Cir 1961) held that “this is a non-criminal case and that Organ’s failure to testify is significant. He did not deny the evidence just recited and the accepted rule is that failure to explain facts and circumstances warrants the inference that his testimony would have been adverse.” Id. That decision was reinforced by the Second Circuit in 1992 in the case of Gray v. Great American Recreation Association, Inc. 970 F.2d 1081,1082 (2d Cir. 1992) “The non-appearance of a litigant at his trial or his failure to testify as to facts material to his case and as to which he has especially full knowledge creates an inference that he refrained from appearing or testifying because the truth, if made to appear, would not aid his contention.” Id. (internal citations and quotations marks omitted).

This rule has repeatedly been used against defendants in civil cases such as in Claiborne v. Mademoiselle Knitwear, Inc. 13 F. Supp. 2d 430, 444 (S.D.N.Y. 1998). “An adverse inference can be drawn against Mademoiselle from its failure to produce Stefansky or any other witness to these offers. The accepted rule in a civil trial is that failure to explain facts and circumstances warrants the inference that [the party’s] testimony would have been adverse.” Id. (internal citations and quotation marks omitted). Additionally in Seetransport Wiking Tradert Schiffahrtsgesellschaft MBH & Co. Komanditgesellschaft v Republic of Romania 123 F. Supp. 2d 174, 187 (S.D.N.Y. 2000), the Court found that the “Court is also mindful that defendants have failed to produce a single fact witness to rebut this crucial and credible testimony… As such, this Court must draw an adverse inference against defendant for its failure to rebut any such testimony, particularly in light of the credible testimony presented by plaintiff and defendant’s clear understanding of the issues to be addressed by the Court at its hearing.” Id.

Here, Plaintiff not only credibly testified to the years of sexual molestation and an attempted rape by Defendant Quezada, Sr., as well as sexually explicit conversations in her presence had by Defendant Quezada Sr. and Defendant Quezada Jr., but also had two additional eyewitnesses credibly testify; one, Jose Eladio Castro, to among other things, an attempted rape, and the other, Cristian Delone, to an indecent exposure by Defendant Quezada Sr. As Defendants’ counsel stated in his opening that either the allegations did not happen or Plaintiff was not offended by them, the jury must be permitted to draw an adverse inference from Defendants failure to present any evidence denying or rebutting the allegations, including their failure to call Defendant Quezada Sr. or Defendant Quezada Jr., who were both present throughout the entire testimony and heard all of the allegations made against each of them.
